Customer Reviews

Terry Way is a professional freelance photographer from Santa Cruz, California.

This is a lovely book with lots of beautiful pictures, divided into sections to highlight different architectural details and specific neighborhoods. Great value for the price! The only thing keeping this book from being truly fantastic is that it lacks interior photos and floorplans. Great addition to my library!

Really pretty pictures, nice quality.

very nice

Terry Way is a wonderful photographer, and shares some incredible history on both San Francisco per se and Victorian homes. He defines the different styles, shows photographs from all over the San Francisco area, and includes a great section that focuses on the small details of the homes.This book would appeal to photographers, those interested in Victorian archetecture, and those interested in San Francisco and San Francisco History. Snippet of information from the book - one of the major reasons these lovely "Painted Ladies" are holding up so well is that they were made from redwood - which is bug and rot resistent!Visually appealing, highly informative - this is a good book to keep in mind for the upcoming holiday gifting season!

If you like books on Victorian Homes, this is the book for you. You'll love it! The photography is AMAZING. Great gift for all ages. I have given copies of VICTORIAN HOMES IN SAN FRANCISCO by TERRY WAY to many people....all have been delighted to receive this. This is a GEM
