Customer Reviews

I’m happy with this guide for the most part. The print is very small and forces me to wear my otherwise unused reading glasses. For some reason many of the churches I’d like to visit have not been included, and I’ve had to find other sources of information. The pull-out map of the underground is a nice touch.

One of three guides purchased for upcoming London vacation. Most helpful. Clear, detailed, easy to follow and make use of information provided.

Fodor’s has consistently been my go to for travel guides. In the age of digital, printed guides still hold a special place for me. This is a great guide, organized nicely, and has lots of pro-tips. After visitng London several times, I consider this a must for anyone visiting London for the first time or the 10th.

highly recommend if going to London. full of places to stay and eat as well as see.

Extremely thorough - lots of invaluable maps and designed for all economic levels of visitors.

This guide gives you lots of information about all parts of London!! It’s really helpful in planning my trip!

Great book. It is a bit heavy to carry around with you though.
