Synopsis

British illustrator Mary Woodin has created watercolors for each month of Galison's lovely Cherry Blossom Garden perpetual calendar. She begins with pansies for January, continues with spring tree blossoms like apple and cherry, plus berries, seed packages (chives, poppies), herbs, and gardening paraphernalia. Butterflies flutter throughout.

??Illustrator and artist Mary Woodin has a great eye for detail and excels when painting natural subjects. Her beautiful watercolour illustrations have been commissioned for a wide range of international projects including packaging, book and magazine publishing, advertising, and stationery. Recent clients include Waitrose, Tesco, M&S, Running Press, Country Living Magazine, Boston Beer Company, Galison...and if Mary's not in the studio she's probably weeding her carrots, talking to a chicken, or conjuring up something delicious in the kitchen. Check out her blog for a glimpse of life in rural Suffolk!????? http://www.marywoodin.blogspot.co.uk/

BEAUTIFUL perpetual calendar!!Hubby and I have big families, plus employees birthdays to remember....NOW, I won't miss these special dates!!Hangs inside our basement door, and I flip it at the beginning of the month.LOVE that they are all in order too!SUPER pleased!

I had been looking for a perpetual calendar at every local book store and arts and crafts store. I should have known that would carry them. Thank you for carrying pretty much of everything we need - and such good quality.

Great as gifts

Never forget a birthday, anniversary or other important events.

I bought quite a few as gifts and they were very well received.

Very nice. Have looked awhile for this type calendar. Thank you

Pretty, study pages so it'll last a long time and just the right size.

A good gift for a friend!!
