Customer Reviews

As a piano teacher I bought this book for some of my young male students. It is a big hit. It is at the early intermediate level. The boys especially like the main Star Wars theme and the Imperial March (Darth Vader’s theme). The Cantina song is a fun one, too, with some somewhat challenging rhythms for intermediate students, but good practice in syncopation.

A good book for intermediate players....who love star wars.

My Nephews can’t get enough of hearing these songs, so I got this for my sister. She says they are easy to play (she had seven years of lessons), even though she doesn’t get to play as often as she would like.

This contains the songs that make the original three Star Wars movies so great-- the songs evoke memories of Luke, Leia, Han, and Darth Vader in their various roles. My daughter [age 12] loves it for piano.

Great

The last reviewer, Bill Dunham, was incorrect. He said this book had 16 songs and 60 pages. I just received this book in the mail and it actually only has 8 songs, and 36 pages. It does contain some nice photos from the movie. I would recommend it for a beginner piano player who likes Star Wars music who's already had a year of lessons.

I got it for one of my boy students for Christmas. Now we will see how he likes it. Kind of into that kind of thing.

Transcriptions isn't accurate in my opinion. With that in mind, it is ok for a few dollars but not worth too much.
