Joan Elliott has been attracting the attention of the cross stitch community for many years. She has published two previous books with David & Charles, A Cross Stitcher's Oriental Odyssey and Cross Stitch Teddies. Joan lives and works in Brooklyn, NY and Vermont.

The book meet all my expectations. Mahalo!!!

Excellent book. It just took longer to get. I thought I was getting it on the 10th and did not get it until the 25th. Already enjoying the book, started a project the same day.

I bought this book so I could participate in a stitch-along using one of the designs in the book. It has many other interesting designs that I may also do. It also shows different ways to use the pieces or to stitch just portions of the designs so that everything doesn't have to be framed.

Great book for the price

Another great book by, Joan Rlliot!Carol Mohrland

love it

I love it and am itching to to stitching - have the materials but need time to execute all the ones I would love to do for the 'appropriate person'.

Excellent choices in patterns and sentiment -- nearly one for every occasion
