Bought this for my nephew's baptism. As he's only 4 months old, it's definitely a little too advanced for him now, but I wish there was a little more color in the book. Saints lived in the same world we live in with colorful sunsets, flowers, and rainbows. This book is very heavy on gray and there were no bright colors that I could see.

I purchased 2 of these books. One for my 9 year old son and the other for my 2 year old godson. It was a big hit with both! I'm ordering 2 more for gifts for Easter. Latin Mass lovers will really enjoy this book. We do!

Beautiful!! Everyone knows that getting a little boy to sit down for a story is tough, but my son begs for his "own saint book" all the time. I know he will always treasure this book, and it has already helped him grow in his understanding of God and the Church.

Received it recently. My child/children won't let me go to sleep until I read them one of these stories. They are short stories with good information. Lucky me. I am too tired to read at that time. but he/they love the stories and which they were longer. Thank you.

Wonderful book, thank you.

Such a sweet little book. Great as a gift for a baptism or first communion. My five year old loves it.

Beautiful Catholic book about boy saints.

Great for little grandchildren to keep the Faith alive.
