Customer Reviews

Just what one expects from a Michelin guide. I had hoped for moredetails on climbing the volcano, and on the two museums, but thisis an elderly edition and not that up to date on the island conditions.

When I bought this book, there was no clear indication that it was written totally in French. I can speak and write a bit so I got by and the book seems very thorough. Lots of good maps and pictures accompanies this guide for Guadeloupe, Martinique, St.Barths, St.Martin and even a few of the neighbouring islands such as Antigua, St.Kitts, Nevis, Montserrat and Anguilla. Again, let me emphasize that the Michelin guides are totally written in French!
