Synopsis

Daisy Crispin is at a crossroads. In one direction lies the promised land--life at college, away from her embarrassing and overprotective parents. In the other direction is reality--her strapped bank account, an ailing father, and family priorities. Daisy knows the "perfect" daughter wouldn’t have to think twice. But maybe Daisy was never really perfect on any level, because she does not want her life to look the way her parents think it should. She won’t let that stop her, though. Now that she has been given an exciting free trip to Argentina before going to college, she’s thrilled--until her parents decide to go along with her.Hilarious and all too true to life, Perfectly Ridiculous gives teen girls more of what they want and love to read from Kristin Billerbeck.

Daisy’s ready for summer fun--but it seems summer has something else in store.High school is over, and Daisy Crispin is happy to leave it in her past and look forward to a bright new future at college. In the meantime, she is planning an all-expenses-paid trip with her best friend Claire to Argentina--home of exotic food, the tango, and her handsome sort-of boyfriend Max. When Daisy discovers she needs to do missions work to fulfill the requirements of her scholarship, she chalks it up to her monumental bad luck in life and kisses her vacation goodbye. What was supposed to be a relaxing time in the lap of luxury turns into hard work, sleeping on a cot, avoiding scorpions, and stressing about where she stands with Max. Daisy wonders if anything in her life will ever go

This very realistic series of books took an honest look at the trials and struggles of high school life, even in a Christian school. I loved the unexpected twist at the end of the book, and the "happy ever after" ending, which actually leaves room for additions to the series. However, I did find certain aspects, (the stolen car and the firing from the mission) to be too far-fetched, in comparison to the first two books of the series.

So I've read all the first and second in this series, but this one was by far the best. There's a new love interest, J.C., and action with a stolen car and a child abuser. There's so much unbelievable and unexpected events that I can't put it down. I love this book soooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooo much!!! :D

A wonderful Christian based series!!! Very comical, and many great reminders from the Bible. "Prejudice is ignorance." I've really enjoyed these books and plan to read more by Kristin Billerbeck!!

I am not a religious person, but I enjoyed all three books. I was not overwhelmed by God like I was in another series I tried to read. All three books are relatable for any one. Religious or not.

must read

I love this author and this series. It is well written, humorous, creative, and fabulous characters. I want more, I can't get enough!

I loved it! Make more!! I liked the first second and third! I couldn't stop reading any of them and if I did then I was at school!

Love it!
