Fun book about a great town. Good buy for any Louisvilian.

We run an Airbnb out of our Louisville-area home, and added this book to our table where we stack local magazines, maps and city information. THIS book is the one that's used most often, and guests often remark how much they enjoyed the humorous perspective. Many of them have used the book for sight seeing and day trips. Whether you've lived in Louisville for years, are a recent transplant or if you're just visiting, this book is worth every penny.

100 Things to Do in Louisville Before You Die is a gift to every Louisville resident and potential visitor. If you want to enjoy Louisville like a true native, read this book. You'll find out why our town's saying is "Keep Louisville Weird" and get the scoop on our street signs, special bars, unique festivals and so much more. If you want a bland experience, you go to the Internet. If want an original Louisville experience, enjoy the suggestions in this fine title. (Disclosure: I'm mentioned in the book.)

If you plan on visiting Louisville and want a more authentic experience when in town, this book is for you. Heck, if youÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢ve lived in Louisville your entire life, this book is for you, too!Very well written and provides enough range of experiences to please everyone.

Great book, very witty and very spot on.

What a fun book! I love the pics and the "tips." Will be buying several as gifts.

A must-have for locals and those visiting our great city!
