Synopsis

Nestled on the Atlantic coast, Bordeaux likes to classify itself as one of the culinary centres of Europe. Here, fine wines and fine dining are the order of the day, but the city and its surrounding region has so much more to offer. In this informative and entertaining short guide book, the author will offer extensive details on all there is to see and do in the area, including a few personally recommended restaurants and other attractions.Thousands of tourists and visitors rely on eTravellers guide book series every year.

Customer Reviews

I’m getting ready for my first visit to Bordeaux and thought this would provide specific and useful information. Not so much. Got more information from web sites. Can’t recommend.
