Sometimes a larger-than-life author deserves a larger-than-life narrator. Willie Nelson uses his distinctive Texas drawl and unhurried pace to deliver these tales of Louis L'Amour's Old West with conviction and warmth. Some equally famous friends--Johnny Cash, Waylon Jennings, and Kris Kristofferson--perform cameos in a well-produced multicast adaptation of RIDING FOR THE BRAND, complete with jingling spurs, war whoops, and gunshots. This collection serves as a fine introduction to L'Amour's work and includes some of his best-known pieces, such as DUTCHMAN'S FLAT and MISTAKES CAN KILL YOU. With Willie talking, one can understand why "country" and "western" are often mentioned in the same breath. B.P. I love this collection of tales by Louis L'Amour. I really like that they are narrated by four of my favorite singers, Willie Nelson, Johnny Cash, Waylon Jennings and Kris Kristofferson. The stories are great. It is a good little collection of tales from the Old West. I would recommend these books on CD to any fan of Louis L'Amour, or fans of Westerns.

I bought this collection to listen to while I have to travel. The stories are done very well and the miles flew by. These are the first audio books I have tried, but they will not be my last. well worth the money.

Immense fun listening to all of the stars voices on these discs. Read a lot of Louis L'Amour books as a kid and was enthralled listening to them as we drove on trip back east earlier this year. Would highly recommend to any fan of Louis L'Amour.

Enjoyed these. Each disc had about an hour's worth of story-telling. Nice narration and some variety in voices was a great touch.

Son in law is a repeat customer so we always know what he wants for Christmas! And I feel good that what he is reading is clean.

very nice wooden box holding 4 CDs , love all the stories

We listened on our vacation. My Sweetheart even go into LouisÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢ westerns. Very good.

Bought as a gift for a friend. She loved the set.
