Synopsis

Following the great success of Pioneers of the Possible, Angella Nazarian returns with an extraordinary sequel, Visionary Women. Featuring a foreword by Melanne Verveer, the director of the Georgetown Institute for Women, Peace and Security, this new title highlights twenty more innovative and forward-thinking women. From Malala Yousafzai as the youngest Nobel Prize laureate and Carmen Amaya beginning her remarkable dance career at age four to swimmer Diana Nyad breaking a world record at sixty- four and Doris Lessing still penning stories into her nineties, this inspiring volume will compel readers to reconnect with their own dreams and envision new goals to challenge themselves at any stage of life.

Bought it as a gift for my amazing daughter who inspires me every day as she works at a non profit to make the world a better place! She loved it. I was surprised in a good way by the size of the book, almost coffee table size. The illustrations and quotes are amazing. I may have to buy another copy for my nieces graduation!

Great collection of women

Visionary Women is a must read! I found myself not wanting to put it down and was so sad when I finally finished the last page. Ms. Nazarian captures the spirit, heart and passion of each woman showcased in this incredible book. I feel inspired to buy this as a gift for every woman I know.. a way to pay it forward. Women empowering other women. Best book I have read in a very very VERY long time!
