Mary Berry CBE is one of the UK’s best-known and most respected cookery writers and television presenters, with over 70 books to her name and 6 million sales worldwide, including nine accompanying Thames Television series. Mary has also been a judge on popular BBC2 TV programme The Great British Bake Off, which is currently in its third series. An Aga specialist she ran celebrated Aga workshops and cookery courses from 1990 to 2006 and, with her daughter Annabel, has produced a best-selling range of salad dressings and sauces. In an article in BBC Good Food magazine (2010), she was voted by the public as the third favourite chef/cook for the most reliable recipes after Jamie Oliver and Delia Smith.

As usual Mary knows her stuff. Good book mary berry cookbook came when promised. have made several desserts, all of which have turned out well. having a good time with it. hope to try more of her cookbooks.

Wonderful book, taste of home and all that is special.

The cook book was all I wished it to be. Looking forward to mastering some of her creations.

This has the easiest recipe I have ever found for making scrummy ÃƒÂ©clairs'!

Excellent book, every recipe comes with a photo

Beautiful, comprehensive and lovely cookbook! Terrific illustrations with great step by step instructions. Great seller with speedy delivery.
