Synopsis

Life has been bleak for Sarah over the last year. First, her mann disappeared, and she had to accept him as dead. Then, she had to face raising her child alone, with no father to cherish her. Then, sheÃ¢â ¬â„¢s stranded on the road, caught in the mud. A stranger helps her, and reaches out to her, but she canÃ¢â ¬â„¢t find it in her heart to accept his offer.Mark has had a hard life, too. His own wife was lost in childbirth, and he has been alone since then. Will that intriguing woman he met on the road ever enter his life again? And even if she does, will he be able to let go of the past long enough to move forward into a brighter future?

Customer Reviews

This is the second story that I have read by this author. Her writing style is easy and flows well. I will probably read other stories by her in the future.

Two people suffering from a loss of their loved ones run into each other and are setup by their bishop’s wife.

Good read, wholesome love stories.
