Title: The Greatest Indian Curries Ever Created!Author: Meera JoshiPublisher: FFDPublishingPublished: 7-17-2017Pages: 128Genre: Cooking, Food & WineSub-Genre: Soups & Stews; Asian; Regional & International; IndianASIN: B073ZPXNJJReviewed For FFDPublishingReviewer: DelAnneRating: 4.5 StarsIf you have a fondness for curry like I do then grab this book and you will find yourself drooling over these various recipes. Curry can be as this as soup to as thick of the heartiest stew. With over 50 recipes offered you could easily enjoy curry once a week for a year and not repeat. The accompanying paired dishes are also provided. Various forms of rice and flat breads can easily found in most grocery stores and bakeries. No matter how you look at it you can not go wrong with this cook book.For those unfamiliar with curry dishes you can read an introduction to curries and a small history. Recipes are easy to follow. Most of the spices are found in large stores or Indian Markets. Soon these rich aromas and savory flavors will fill your kitchen an tempt your taste buds.My rating of "The Greatest Indian Curries Ever Created!" is 4.5 out of 5 stars.

I love Indian food. I would probably not know how to use or interpret this cookbook without already having studied and cooked Alamelu’s Indian dishes from the create channel. I did have to Google many of the ingredients as they have different names, but I did enjoy the book because of the new recipes and the challenge.

I’ve had the opportunity to try several of these recipes now. The curries are absolutely awesome - flavorful, spicy and deeply rich in texture. I’m not very experienced with Indian curries, so I loved the easy to follow, fresh ideas and recipes in this book. The author is clear and easy to understand.

This book is perfect if you enjoy spicy foods. There are many interesting sounding dishes onbe may want to try

Nice cookbook with easy to follow directions. Depending on where you live, some of the ingredients may have to be substituted or difficult to find. I do appreciate the easy directions and that I can adjust the heat level to my preference.

Nice variety of recipes. Clear, easy to follow explanations.A couple of critical ingredients may be difficult to find.
