I am so happy I found this desk calendar! I love the variety of designs to color. The calendar portion itself is very clean with plenty of space to write in, along with a notes section on the right side -- much appreciated! The paper quality is fine and works perfectly with pens and colored pencils.My only wish is that there was some sort of binding portion along the top. I haven’t had any pages come off without me pulling them, but I’m nervous that it’ll happen.And random complaint: the edges of the plastic corner holders at the bottom are really sharp! My sleeve catches on them every once in a while.

Unlike a few other reviewers I did receive the academic year calendar, so no complaints on that front. I am a bit disappointed in the quality, though. The paper is the weight of regular copy paper, which means markers soak through to the next month. The plastic tab corners also have rough plastic edges (unlike the smooth, rounded corner plastic tabs I've had with other calendars), which can snag on sweaters. It will serve its purpose well this year, but I will likely return to a higher quality calendar next school year.

I actually haven't started using it yet, as of right now it isn't 2017 yet. I may edit this later when I do start using it. But I'm lazy and I'm sure everyone already has their own opinion on coloring at this point. So it likely won't happen.I did open the package and look at the calendar. There are 12 unique, and very pretty, designs--each month is different, nothing repeats. The size is nice, about the same as your typical desk calendar.

Use for work, and keeps me engaged while in office meetings.

The calendar itself is nice but it is not an academic year calendar as the description says. It is 2017 calendar year.

This item is NOT an academic calendar. I ordered this item 3 different times, hoping that I would get the item described and each time I received the wrong item. DO NOT ORDER THIS ITEM IF YOU WANT AN ACADEMIC YEAR CALENDAR. Every time I ordered this, I got a regular 2017 desk calendar that started in January.

I cant wait to use this once the school year starts. I have been looking for something fun and soothing for quiet moments at work and i know i found it in this blotter calendar.

I love this calendar! Wish I had more time to color... maybe during some inservice days.
