Good book!

Great book to teach the young about finance. Why do we NOT teach this in schools???

If you already read financial books, this isn't for you (you'll already know everything in this book) But for the rest of us, this is perfect- a clear, easy and, most importantly, personalized plan for achieving financial goals and staying out of debt, achieving economic security and retiring comfortably. Bach's examples are inspiring and he has tips for controlling expenses - from waiting 48 hours before buying anything that costs $100.00 or more to showing how saving as little as 3.33 a day can add up to significant savings over time. His graphs and tables are very easy to follow and his worksheets are equally simple. Perfect for anyone wanting to save more, from students just out of college to families in a budget crunch.

I recently went through chap 7 bankruptcy and have been doing fincial conseling and she told me to get this book and the workbook to help me get back on track. What a great suggestion! The workbook makes you relize just how important it is to write it down and apply it. some really great points that I never even thought of. Some stuff didnt apply to me since I did the bankruptcy but it helps you to get headed in the right direction.

I have thoroughly enjoyed reading the "finish rich series" by David Bach. This workbook summarizes the result of what you learned from reading the series.

Spent the past two days in the workbook. So easy to follow, easy to read and understand and step by step instructions in getting your finances in order!

Definitely helps put things into perspective

Great book very helpful
